6.2 The Members may provide for the employment of such officials, clerical and other personnel (the "Agreement staff") as may be deemed required to assist the Chairman in the performance of his duties and to act for the Chairman in the event of absence or disability. (b) Any Member may, within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of a notice of resignation by another Member, resign by the same procedure and subject to the same conditions, but effective not earlier than the day designated by such other Member's notice of resignation. The tendering of a notice of resignation shall not, until the resignation becomes effective, relieve a Member of its obligations under this Agreement, but a Member shall not,

after it submits such a notice, be entitled to vote on any matter which is to continue in effect until, or become effective after, the effective date of its resignation.

(c) Any notice of resignation tendered by a Member may be withdrawn at any time prior to its effective date upon advice thereof to the Chairman who shall immediately so advise the other Members. No expulsion shall become effective until a detailed statement setting forth the reasons therefor has been provided to the expelled Member and a copy to the FMC.

7.4 Any carrier becoming a Member of this Agreement shall thereby become a party to, and any carrier resigning or expelled from membership shall thereby cease to be a party to, any agreements or contracts jointly entered into by all of the Members on the one hand, and any other person or persons, on the other. ARTICLE 8: VOTING

~~8.1 Only those Members offering service from particular ports or points within the scope of this Agreement to such ports or points and participate in the geographic Section of this Agreement in which they are covered shall be entitled to vote on any matter pertaining to such service.~~ Any Member participating in any Tariff, or adhering to any Tariff provision, jointly established by The Members pursuant to this Agreement, and any Member electing to participate in any conference joint service contract, or in the negotiation of such a contract, shall be entitled to vote on any matter pertaining thereto.

Provided, however, that the general obligations of the Members pertaining to adherence to Agreement tariffs set forth at Article 14.2 hereof shall not be binding upon any Member until the first day a tariff of rates and charges filed pursuant to this Agreement, and covering the transportation of relevant cargo in any particular sector of the trade a Member serves, becomes effective pursuant to said Act and the applicable regulations of the FMC.

(b) Any subsequent amendment to this Agreement shall become effective on the first day it may be lawfully implemented under the Act except that should such an amendment stipulate that it shall enter into effect at a later time, then it shall be effective at such later time.

ARTICLE 13: INDEPENDENT ACTION

13.1 Except as otherwise provided herein, any Member shall have the right to take independent action with respect to any rate or service item upon five (5) calendar days' written notice to the Chairman, received during normal business hours, specifying said action. 13.2 Upon receipt of a Member' notice of independent action, the Chairman shall promptly advise all other Members ~~participating in the Section or Sections to which it pertains~~ thereof. Each other Member shall thereupon have the right to adopt that action with effect from the same date, or any subsequent date, by so advising the Chairman in writing. Except to so adopt the independent action of another Member, no Member may revise any matter with respect to which it has provided notice of independent action, and whether or not that action has become effective, without first providing notice of such intent in accordance with Sub Article 13.1 hereof.

Provided, however, that the Members are authorized to exchange information relating to ISCs and discuss such information as is in the public domain or available by reason of a legal requirement or where an ISC shipper party has consented to such disclosure/discussion.

14.3 The Members may agree upon voluntary guidelines which relate solely to technical, non-commercial matters, or to the disclosure by a Member to the other Members of the existence, but not the terms (other than those required to be published under applicable U.S. law) of an ISC with a shipper when such a shipper requests a joint service contract. In addition, the Members may promulgate and adopt a standard/model Agreement service contract which any Member or Members may refer to and utilize as a basis for negotiating service contracts with shippers. The Members are also authorized to refer to and adopt published Agreement service contract rates in connection with their ISCs and JSCs.
